The transition from the ancient, The Karma of Vocation definite conditions in which men learned from the will of the gods what was to happen here on earth has already occurred. What is still possible in many cases today, even though it is only a residue left over from ancient times that people routinely cling to, will soon prove to be empty phrases; that is, the fine manner of speaking so much admired today, according to which children must be allowed to become what corresponds to their observed talents.

In winter the earth is awake, and most wide awake at Christmas; then the earth's
