It kept catching my interest with the blurb, but I hadn't really heard much about it. This is an incredible book! They refer to magic here as 'The Shared' and it almost has a connected quality to it where you can sense what is happening throughout 'the shared' because it is such a small community of practitioners. You won't be disappointed. It is not often that I also judge a book on its cover nor am I so taken with This novel caught my attention almost immediately with its eye-catching cover, that with the smoke and fog creates an almost dreamlike effect as well as the figure looking quite brutal and gruesome. Wishing for what is not is a fast way to poison your heart. This is an excellent story.

Return to Book Page. I still wanted the good guys to win in the end of course, but there's just something about a villain who was mistreated from birth and continues to be neglected because of circumstances beyond his control. I found the characterization spot on, but the villain
