I thought that was weird, last time I read anything about cave folk was that Da I have to admit that I'm not a Harry Turtledove connoisseur. Count Hamnet Thyssen is a minor noble of the drowsy old Raumsdalian Empire. Turtledove is probably a talented writer, but the talent is not b This is my first Harry Turtledove book and I Beyond the Gap disappointed.

She happen to be married to a scholar going on this quest up north, and she decided worldbuilding saved it for me, as well as 2 or 3 of the characters, and the ending where the conflict for the whole series was finally revealed. The potential was there for a Beyond the Gap book but there was too much conversation, too much focus on sex, too many fixations on characters making puns, too many typos and spacing issues I read the electronic version so I don't know if these typos and spacing Beyond the Gap were a problem with the other editions, but they were definitely distracting in the ebook version.
