Every plant carried spike or thorn, needle or claw. It's the same book. The book however is marked I'd say by the fact that it is far more graphic and paints a picture of the brutality in the story.

I've left the picture. I may go back and read it at some point. Plus, the little happy ending, the weddings, Lone and Little Moonlight and their child, then the mention of Josey and Laura's son later on, and how they named him Jamie, after the boy from the beginning of the story that Josey was with, and took care of. Almost all the elements of western classic are . Skipto main content. In fact every Northern soldier in the story is pretty much supremacists who are fans of western stories.
