It has been noted that some of these sayings are not apt for this role. It helped that some of these wise sayings fused with the themes of the 'framework story', as we shall show .
Comparisons are made between the biblical account of Solomon's reign and West Also, not all texts compared with Hebrew wisdom literature are really of the same category. The text that we have was transcribed in Egypt towards the end of the fifth century. But he now plays his trump.
Wisdom, it is suggested, is even treated negatively, or at least very ambiguously. of these sentiments are doubtless established proverbs, while others may well be deliberate variations or comments upon such proverbs. Speak to the god, my father, Thus says Apil-Adad, your servant:
