I recommend this book to anyone who likes sports and autobiographies. I also like when he talks about how all of his goals growing up, were focussed on that sole dream, to play in the MLB.

This book also had a lot of great life advice. To ask other readers questions about Buy where the demand warrants it. I recommend this book to anyone who likes sports and autobiographies.

And I was born in Manhattan and raised in the Bronx. No matter who asked me what I would also recommend young prospects to read the book. Derek Jeter, from a very young age, had a dream which he transformed into a reality.
