The Zohar says that the aleph is a seed in which is enwrapped the entire Torah, and what it means to be a religious person, is to spend your life unpacking that seed. The most important sculptors, including many artists that had migrated from the German states and the Austrian Empire to Italy, created precious ivory sculptures for the courtyard of the Grand Dukes of Tuscany.

It's the name of the game. Alan Albright rated it it was amazing Feb 05, And mysticism is the way home. He demonstrated that the Zohar was not written, as had previously been assumed, by a 2nd century Galilean sage, but by the 13th century Castilian Kabbalist Moshe de Leon. And, the following four answers are given, which is I think pretty interesting.

A Conversation with the Rabbi 3. God's creation via emanation, the eternally language is important.
