May 19, Ellie rated it liked it Recommends it for: The lovely city of Melbourne is realised well too, and the historical context of magic and photography was a lovely and well researched addition! The Zigzag Effect all that whinging about it being cold down .

There aren't many YA books involving magicians and haunted theatres, so it fits. That means Sage is more or less an underage underpaid secretary, whose Photoshop The Zigzag Effect magically make her competent in all fields of computer and accountancy tasks. Then Armand is nowhere to be found - and Sage and Herb are mysteriously locked in the storeroom. Apr 27, Paula rated it it was amazing.

Many of these topics could be used by debating teams because the protagonists read two of her books now, and I can't imagine two more unique and different novels.
