Also, until the fairly recent past mid 20th century divorce was all about winning. The family courts are incredibly bias against men. It's devastating to think about all those years you've invested. It's so bad that many commit suicide after divorce. Take that to a great therapist. Or move to a country without feminism. It may take a while for trust to rebuild but the sooner you turn the dynamic around, the sooner you can get on the right and less expensive track.
