Greenspan has published work on this topic in both academic journals and popular media, including in The Atlantic. They all let us down at Ground Zero. To me, not rebuilding the Twin Towers is saying that the terrorists did change us that day. Each detail could spark an enormous backlash either from families or city officials. But we do believe that Golden Twin Towers can still rise at the site, towering above the Freedom Tower, reestablishing a world-class skyline and redefining our nation. The day that changed the world: I don't know what I'm talking about? A young man from Ireland wrote on our petition in June,
