Claimed by K.R. Smith

"Claimed" is a small nugget of a novella written by K.R. Smith to bring readers into her "Circulate Series". Now does it work? For this reader.

Huge sections were either overly explained or not explained at all. When the heroines passions which come out as popular subjects in her sci-fi, supernatural, romance series are traveling the world and through timehauntings, werewolves, vampires, voodoo, ESP and always looking on the bright side of life and death. First off, every other sentence had an exclamation point at the end when the heroine Jessica was speaking! The book reads as if it were thrown together in a week, but never revised or edited. It was definitely one of the better werewolf stories I have read in a .
