When we were writing a lot of songs for the first album, we're talking about writing as 18 and 19 year olds. Being 25 now, I feel like I just look at things a tiny bit differently. From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia. The extended intro for the song began to evolve starting during these performances, with it eventually changing and morphing as time went on. They ended up recording the final version one week after the rest of the album was finished, in the studio where they were mixing.

General Comment "Very good considering Linkin Park don't write their own songs am a bit confused by .
