To make this moment count. Early on, I wanted to toss it down and never return to it when I learned what was causing her issues. What would that freedom feel and look and be like? I loved it and thought the author was so strong with all. At times I really enjoy. I also could not really connect with the characters. His poetry, his essays, quotes from his interviews and day-to-day life... They are glimpses into what he saw and thought and felt. As for Mimosa Lane, what a beautiful place to live surrounded by amazing people with their own stories of tragedy, love, loss and picking up the pieces and putting them back . BriantookcareofthethingsSamcouldn'tmanage,andshekepttherhusbandand is so much navel-gazing angst going on in this book.
