Life is quiet for Alex Verus. Amazing. With a flat full of friends (and the occasional fish) and business booming, why not enjoy the humdrum here and now?.

Book of the Month. In reviewing the first three Alex Verus novels by author Benedict Jacka, I have focused primarily on their setting in London. This time around.

About Chosen. THE NEW ALEX VERUS NOVEL I don't publicly advertise that I'm a mage, but I don't exactly hide it either, and one of the odd things I've learnt.

This time around, however, it would simply be unfair to focus on such a secondary aspect of the book, and to ignore the powerful character-driven story that predominated. Aug 01, Phrynne rated it it was amazing.

Whether their relationships are solid enough to withstand anything, well, that also leaves the adepts hanging, aligned to neither. Books by Benedict Jacka. He has friends, and no one has tried to kill him for a .

I found Chosen had so much improvement, as it moved away from the serious issue reading the details on how she became Deleo, I can't help to feel pity. I lost this book for like a month and then found it.
