It always seemed like he belonged for nothing more than to be a sky Pirate. Together with Chris Riddell he is co-creator of the bestselling Edge Chronicles, which has sold more than three million copies and is available in over twenty languages. I love the way that the final Big Battle ends, for no apparent reason.

There are a few nit-picky things here and there, but overall, a great ending. Despite especially like how the author was able to expand on the innocent dangers of the edge, while still keeping a good pace for the story. The most unique and fascinating part of the edge chronicles is the flight rocks and its usage in sky sailing.
