A couple of tissues taped to the ceiling to diffuse the light, and this studio is officially a wrap. The Bible suggests that money is a cause of evil – but hardly the only one. Analytics allow those keeping watch of the brand to derive insight from data. Sentiment scoring gives a brand insight into what customers are saying at a text level and applies a score to that commentary. Analytical segmentation can help you understand which segments are trending negatively, and you can create a marketing activity to reach those customers. But which types of data? Swap out the old speakers for the new speakers, bring in the additional sub, and if your actual point is to say people spend too much time worrying about the sonics of music, and not enough time crafting the underlying composition and orchestration, I would say perhaps, but if the goal is to end up with something that is compelling to listen to, then all of the aforementioned elements are paramount...having an exquisite composition that is mixed and mastered poorly is not a good outcome.
