But does not the author of these childish attempts to prove Cervantes to have been a covert sceptic, or a sort of glorified Tom Paine, see that in proving this he is proving too much? The interior remained unknown to them, and beyond lay the great encircling ocean and the Islands of the Blessed. Title page of the ed.

But what concerns us most is, that the translator has carried this overstrain. The scene and subjects of this serio-comic warfare are too remote for modern sympathy. To thee I bend the knee, A pilgrim new, a lowly devotee, 'Translator s Preface.
